

Mr. Imran Khan
Executive Director

Imran Khan is the Executive Director of the International Chamber of Commerce in India. He has over 15 years of diverse experience working with several leading corporates, research institutions and think tanks. His interest include commercial law and sovereign disputes settlement, international relations, strategic management, research and trade. Mr Khan has bachelor degrees in Commerce and Law and also holds a MBA from Jamnalal Bajaj Institute of Management Studies and MPhil in International Relations and Politics from the University of Cambridge. He has also attended an advanced management course at the Lorange Institute of Business, Zurich. Currently, he also serves as a research fellow at the Department of Politics and International Studies at the University of Cambridge and is also a member of the Corbett Centre for Maritime Policy Studies at Kings College, London.