ABOUT THE ICC INTERNATIONAL COURT OF ARBITRATION

The ICC International Court of Arbitration is the world's leading arbitral institution. Since 1923, we have been helping to resolve difficulties in international commercial and business disputes to support trade and investment.

Our purpose is to ensure proper application of the ICC Rules, as well as assist parties and arbitrators in overcoming procedural obstacles.

We continuously seek to improve efficiency, control time and costs and aid enforcement and confidentiality by introducing innovative new arbitration tools and procedures. This ongoing focus makes certain that we are always in touch with the concerns and interests of trading partners throughout the world.

ABOUT ICC INDIA

Set up in 1929, ICC India is one of the most active chapters of the ICC - the world's apex business organisation.

In its fold it has a large membership of law firms, enterprises, chambers of commerce, trade & industry associations among others. It is the forum, which makes it easier to do business internationally.

ICC India is a key stakeholder in supplementing ICC's efforts by providing valuable insights into the existing environment, connecting with both public and private stakeholders on the ground and provide a better understanding of India's needs and ambitions in a way to recalibrate its priorities taking into account the evolving global economic order.

With a view to facilitating international trade, ICC India regularly organizes seminars, workshops and training programs on ICC evolved rules on arbitration. Such interactions provide an opportunity to deliberate on a range of issues and help the audience in understanding and adapting the internationally accepted rules locally.
